We're just one month away from this year's Lights On Afterschool on Oct. 18! Register now!

So far, almost 4,000 afterschool supporters have registered to let us know how they plan to celebrate Lights On Afterschool, including an open house at the Boys & Girls Club of Coastal Carolina in Beaufort, NC, and a family dinner and game night at CHAMPS in Rhinelander, WI. Check out our event finder for even more ideas for how you can celebrate.

Join us! Celebrating Lights On Afterschool can help build support for afterschool programs in your community, increase program visibility and attract new partners. Our comprehensive event planning kit makes it easy to get started.

How about celebrating Lights On Afterschool with a nutritious meal? Afterschool programs are an important ally in the effort to keep kids healthy and hunger-free while teaching them about nutrition and healthy eating habits. And to help you celebrate this fact with kids and families in your community, E S Foods is going to supply one lucky registrant with afterschool meals for their Lights On Afterschool event! Register by Sept. 26 to be entered. Additionally, email us for information on how you can order convenient afterschool meals from E S Foods for your Lights On event, or to try out on a daily basis: info@afterschoolalliance.org.

And while you're at it, take a moment to complete a short survey gauging interest in the At-Risk Afterschool Meal Program and help the Afterschool Alliance better understand the barriers to providing afterschool meals.

Thanks for all that you do to support afterschool. Together, we can make sure that every child has access to quality, affordable afterschool programs.
